Treasury Department
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Jim:

ER

It was with a great deal of pleasure that I learned of your appointment as the Chief, U. S. Secret Service, which you so richly deserved.

I know you will find your new position to be an intensely interesting and challenging one and I want to tell you that we stand ready to assist you in any way that we possibly can. We enjoyed our relationship with you while you were head of the White House detail and appreciate the excellent cooperation and assistance that you rendered to us on many occasions.

With my very best wishes,

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
