Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D. C.

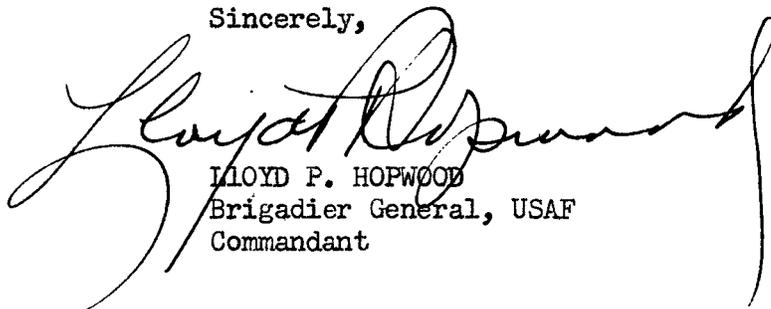

Dear General Cabell:

With reference to our borrowing the Soviet propaganda film "Silvery Dust," we would like to use it for approximately two weeks.

If the film could be delivered to the Intelligence mail room at the Pentagon, 4A-948, for pick-up 11 February 1955, it would certainly be appreciated. We could return it to the Pentagon Intelligence mail room for delivery to you on 21 February 1955.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

LLOYD P. HOPWOOD
