16 February 1959

Dear Mr. Dulles:

In view of the temporary absence of the Commandant, Vice Admiral Wellborn, it is my pleasure to invite members of your Agency to make a presentation to the Twenty-fifth Class of the Armed Forces Staff College at 1000 (EST), on Thursday, 21 May 1959, on the subject, "Unconventional Warfare".

It would be appreciated if a representative from your Agency would talk for approximately 30 minutes on the role of unconventional warfare in furthering military and political objectives; the concept of the inter-related fields of guerrilla warfare, subversion, and other forms of unconventional warfare against hostile states; the organization to conduct operations in these fields; and the responsibility of the Department of Defense, the three Services, and their departments or agencies for unconventional warfare planning. Additionally, I would like a speaker from your Agency to give a short presentation of approximately 15 minutes covering escape and evasion and air support related to these activities. In conjunction with these talks, I am asking the Department of the Army's Office of Special Warfare to participate again for approximately 20 minutes.

This presentation on "Unconventional Warfare" will have been preceded immediately by a 40-minute portrayal of "Psychological Warfare", also to be given by a member of the Department of the Army's Office of Special Warfare. Approximately 30 minutes will be devoted to a combined question period on both subjects following the last presentation.

I would appreciate very much your making available of your Agency, if possible, since they contributed most effectively to previous presentations and discussion periods.
