Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

In accordance with JCS approval, the Department of the Army has charged the U. S. Army Intelligence School with developing a Senior Foreign Officers Intelligence Course, with special emphasis on Latin America and Southeast Asia. The school is also charged with support of U. S. Army Intelligence Courses for Latin American personnel at Fort Gulick, Canal Zone, and for Asian military personnel at Okinawa, as well as support of intelligence training by our Army MAAGs and Missions.

It seems evident that it would be in our National interest if direct liaison contact could be permitted between the school and the Training Division of your Agency.

Major General Prather, who commands our Army Intelligence Center and hence the Intelligence School, informs me that representatives of the Central Intelligence Agency have indicated a willingness to assist but that a formal indication of our requirement for direct liaison is needed.

The Assistant Commandant, U. S. Army Intelligence School, will identify and indicate clearance status of designated liaison personnel from the Army Intelligence School, and make such other arrangements as may be desired at your convenience.

Sincerely,

(sgt.) JOHN M. WILLEMS

JOHN M. WILLEMS
Major General, GS
ACofS for Intelligence
