MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT:

1. has, since September 1951, been the Navy representative at the Counter Espionage Center (CEC). This Center is operated jointly by CIA and the three Armed Services, using Special Intelligence material for CE work.

2. The Navy, which sponsored the CEC before it was moved to CIA premises, has always been the most active of the Armed Services in this joint enterprise, and has distinguished himself during his three-year tour by his cooperative and enthusiastic attitude.

3. is returning to civilian life this week, and it is therefore appropriate that his work be commended in a suitable letter to the Navy at this time. There is attached such a letter for your signature.

Chief of Operations, DD/P
