MEMORANDUM FOR: Admiral George W. Anderson, Jr.
Chief of Naval Operations
Department of the Navy

SUBJECT : Commendation - [redacted]

STAT

1. I wish to commend [redacted] for his outstanding manner of performance while on detail to this Agency during the period 23 February 1955 to the present date.

STAT

2. [redacted] has demonstrated outstanding leadership, executive ability, initiative, and enthusiasm in the performance of his duties. He has made significant contributions of national security import to this Agency and to the Armed Forces in the field of air operations. He was awarded a decoration by this Agency for voluntarily participating in a hazardous testing operation to demonstrate the feasibility of newly developed equipment and techniques for specialized air operations.

3. He has participated in the development of doctrine pertinent to air support of paramilitary operations and has planned and directed courses of instruction for Agency and U. S. military personnel in this and related subjects. I believe him to be particularly well qualified to assume greater responsibilities in this field.

4. Throughout the six years that he has served with this Agency, [redacted] has set a fine example of leadership. He readily accepts responsibility, exercises authority, is dependable and forceful and inspires confidence and loyalty in his subordinates. His over-all performance and contribution to the objectives of the Agency have been of the highest quality and reflect credit on him and the United States Navy.
