Admiral Arleigh Burke
Chief of Naval Operations
Department of the Navy
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Burke:

25X1 [redacted] the senior Naval officer you so kindly loaned to CIA for the duration of [redacted] is being returned 25X1 to Navy for duty on or about 1 May 1961. It is appropriate, therefore, 25X1 to thank you for making him available to us and, also, to comment on his performance with [redacted]

25X1 Within a short time of [redacted] arrival he had firmly 25X1 established himself as a working member of the Task Force team.
In addition to his being pleasant and completely cooperative, he brought to the Task Force a much-needed competence in maritime 25X1 matters. His all-around knowledge and general technical skill were of infinite value to [redacted] in planning the water movement

25X1 [redacted] As you are probably aware, 25X1 we have reason to believe this particular phase of the operation was accomplished without detection by the enemy. [redacted] also 25X1 traveled to our maritime base, surveyed operations there, and made valuable recommendations which were implemented by the Base Chief.

25X1 To a man, senior officers of the Task Force with whom [redacted] worked considered it a great pleasure to have been associated with him. In our judgment he reflects the finest tradition of his Service.

Sincerely,

C. P. CABELL
General, U. S. A. F.
