MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Possible Responses [redacted]
[redacted]

1. The group meeting at the White House at 1030, 30 March, was as indicated in the attached memorandum but also included the Secretary of State, Mr. Dean Rusk.

2. Mr. Rusk asked Mr. Cline to discuss the problem. Mr. Cline did so, generally along the lines of the attached memorandum. After considerable discussion, the President directed that Mr. Cline and Mr. Bundy prepare a response which Mr. Cline would take to [redacted] A copy of this response is attached.

3. When Mr. Harriman brought up the subject of [redacted] [redacted] the President indicated that we should just sit tight now and let matters take their course for a few days.

4. Mr. Rusk told the President that he would have a nomination [redacted] by the middle of this week. Mr. Cline asked that he be notified in advance and that the sooner [redacted] [redacted] was informed, the better off we would be. I did not notice Mr. Rusk respond to this, so subsequently called Mr. Cutler in Rusk's office and told him of our desires. [redacted] should follow up on this to ensure that Cline's position with [redacted] is maintained.
