14 April 1965

Even though I am shortly to be leaving this assignment, since the law prohibits the Director and the Deputy Director both being from the military, active or retired, I want you to know that my assurances of great respect and total cooperation will continue, both for myself and for our people here in the Central Intelligence Agency.

Remembering with amusement and chagrin the napkins we used when you visited me, I have taken immediate measures to correct this complete lapse of adequate intelligence -- and the results are attached! This is the first time in history that our printing plant has ever gone to work on paper napkins.

With warm personal regards,

Faithfully yours,

/s/

Marshall S. Carter
Lieutenant General, USA
Deputy Director
