The Director asked about the status of NIE 11-8-66, and Kent said that it will be ready for the pre-USIB meeting this afternoon. While he anticipates a possible need for subsequent meetings at the working level, Kent feels that the Estimate can be cleaned up without return to USIB.

DD/I briefed the Director on yesterday's Red Guard rally in Peking as a possible sign of serious disarray in the leadership.

DD/I called attention to an item on Chinese Communist fighter aircraft production in this morning's CIB. DDCI warned against exaggerating Chinese difficulties in the production of MIG-21's.

DD/I noted that the tripartite talks in Bonn begin today and that the U. S. delegation is composed of McCloy, Bowie, McNaughton, and General Spivy.

Godfrey called attention to a station assessment of [redacted] which he described as excellent,
