In the processing of service continuation cases, the procedures are for D/Pers to forward to the DCI before the close of the FY a consolidated listing of those consultants whose services are desired for the forthcoming year. The purpose for this is to request DCI policy approval. It is only after this approval that D/Pers may institute processing, which includes obtaining financial interest statements. These we review

Larry:

The last paragraph of Bob Wattles' covering memo says that DDCI's approval is contingent upon your concurrence for conflict of interest. Would it not be more orderly if you would take your position on this prior to DDCI's consideration?
