DIARY NOTES

Executive Director-Comptroller

5 November 1965

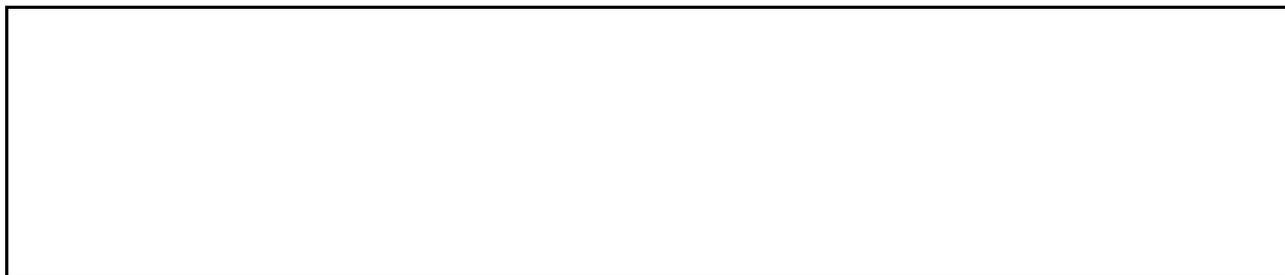

1. I lunched with [redacted] of NRO. They are very intent upon establishing the proper rapport with Agency officials to ensure the success of the National Reconnaissance Program. I found [redacted] to be a most favorably disposed individual.

2. The Director called to express his pleasure at receiving my progress report on PPB, but he wondered if some of the deadlines we had set for December could not be moved back to about March. I told him it was necessary for us to have these deadlines in order to stay one step ahead of the Bureau of the Budget. He agreed.

3. I attended a briefing by Emmett Echols on his recruitment program for NPIC. I believe that at long last they have arrived at something which will fly, and I will arrange to have them brief the Director as soon as possible.
