25X1

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Thursday, 9 April 1953

PRESENT: Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Kirkpatrick, Amory, Helms, and [redacted]

25X1

25X1 Mr. Dulles:

25X1 a. Noted the first item in the Log of 8-9 April concerning 25X1 suspension [redacted] and asked Mr. Helms to furnish 25X1 him a report on this subject. Done [redacted]

25X1 b. Referred to the third item in the Log of 8-9 April and
25X1 stated that in a conversation with [redacted] on 6 April [redacted]
25X1 had expressed appreciation for our assistance [redacted] and at the same
25X1 time also conveyed [redacted] concern over the number of sensitive
25X1 PP operations [redacted] After some discussion, the Director
25X1 asked that [redacted] be advised of his (DCI's)
25X1 conversation with [redacted] Mr. Wisner noted it would be useful if
25X1 [redacted] would analyze and make a brief [redacted] the Director
25X1 of the recent cables received [redacted] in connection with [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] the above mentioned operations. Mr. Helms undertook to 25X1 follow through on this.

25X1 c. Noted the item in the Log for 7-8 April concerning SE Division's 25X1 consideration of blocking the re-entry permit of [redacted] and 25X1 stated he was not positive we should concern ourselves with this and 25X1 therefore asked Mr. Helms to check this with the Chief, SE.

Mr. Wisner:

25X1 a. Reported that one of his officers had luncheon recently
25X1 with Mr. [redacted] Magazine and had made an excellent
25X1 memorandum for the record of the conversation that took place, copies
25X1 of which will be furnished the Director and Mr. Kirkpatrick. The 25X1 Director noted that he had been considering writing a letter [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] After some discussion wherein it was
25X1 pointed out that the article on CIA which appeared in the April issue
25X1 of this magazine had in fact been given to the Agency for comment
25X1 prior to being published, it was decided the Director would hold up
25X1 his proposed letter until Mr. Amory determined whether we had received 25X1 the article in question in sufficient time to make appropriate comments.
