

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Thursday, 28 May 1953

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wisner, Wolf, Kirkpatrick, Helms, Sheldon and [redacted]

Mr. Dulles:

a. Asked DD/P to arrange a briefing for Mr. R. Douglas Stuart, the newly appointed Ambassador to Canada.

b. Asked D/DCI to look into the whole problem of [redacted] [redacted] noting it appeared to him that by and large our failures in this activity were the result of poor security.

c. Expressed his concern over the reports received on the deteriorating political situation [redacted] and asked Mr. Sheldon to check with ONE and determine whether something on this should be prepared for the President.

d. Noted he had not seen any late reports on the forthcoming [redacted] Mr. Sheldon stated OCI was in the process of preparing an estimate on this subject.

e. Noted he intended to get in touch with Admiral Radford prior to his return to Honolulu.

General Cabell:

Stated that at the request of the Secret Service we had agreed to coordinate with that organization, [redacted], in regard to security measures for the forthcoming conference in [redacted]. In this connection, D/DCI noted that [redacted] has been designated as the CIA point of contact.

Mr. Wolf:

Noted Colonel Edwards was experiencing some difficulty respecting his retirement from the Army on 30 June, and stated that after discussing this with D/DCI he (DD/A) would personally call on Major General Robert N. Young, ACofS, G-1, Department of the Army, to obtain his views on the best procedure for handling this problem. Mr. Dulles said he would be willing to go direct to General Collins if necessary.

Mr. Wisner:

a. Referred to the briefing on brainwashing for Attorney General Brownell and selected members of his staff, and recommended that they be invited here in order that the "20-minute" movie on this subject could be shown. The Director approved and noted his intention to attend and possibly to participate in this briefing.
