c. Noted a cable had been received from [redacted] stating that the various persons we sent to [redacted] for the [redacted] Conference had performed in a most professional and efficient manner and deserved commendation for their diligent efforts. If DD/P concurs, letters for the Acting Director's signature should be prepared in accordance with [redacted] recommendation.

Mr. Kirkpatrick:

a. Stated that as a result of recent meetings the Public Service Aid Society, an internal CIA welfare and charitable organization, will be included as a participant in the forthcoming Consolidated Charities drive. He announced that the Internal Revenue Bureau had now given its approval to the Society as a legitimate charitable organization and that contributions made to this Society are deductible for income tax purposes. He expressed the belief that since the existence of the Society is not too well known as yet, it should be publicized within CIA and all employees asked to contribute at least a dollar to its support. He noted that a paper on this subject will be placed on the Acting Director's desk today.

Mr. Lloyd:

Announced that pursuant to the Acting Director's request at the previous Deputies' Meeting, a new system of forwarding all supergrade pay checks had been effected. Commencing with the next pay period, all supergrade pay checks will be dispatched from the Finance Office in individually sealed envelopes addressed to the recipients.
