DEPUTIES' MEETING

Friday, 14 November 1958

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Col. White, Gen. Truscott,
Messrs. Helms, Sheldon, Bissell, Kirkpatrick, Karamessines,

[Redacted]

Mr. Dulles:

Stated for some time he had felt that the method of implementing the 1290-d Program should be changed. He said in particular he had reached the conclusion that the type of training now being provided by CIA to the constabularies of the several foreign nations should be changed.
