Major General C. A. Willoughby

Dear General Willoughby:

Stanley Grogan has shown me the advance copy of your first piece on Central Intelligence; also your note regarding your future plans for several articles on intelligence activities as well as a story regarding the Soviet attacks on the brave people of Hungary.

Your chronology of attacks on intelligence activities during the Sino-Korean War will prove most interesting, not only to intelligence officials but to the general public.

Again, thank you for letting us see an advance of your first article and for your kind remarks about the work of C. I. A.

With high regard,

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

This memorandum is for information only.

The attached article by General Willoughby resulted from our recent conversation. It is most excellent and he is high in his praise of CIA. In fact, from page 7 on the entire article is from information furnished by this office without any change whatever in wording or punctuation. We also gave him biographies and pictures of the Director, Deputy Director, and DD/I which he will use in a future article. Please note in his memorandum to me that he is also going to do an article on Chalmers Roberts Murrey Harder for their Monday morning quarterbacking.
