Dear Mr. Dent:

In view of your interest in [redacted]
I am writing to inform you of the outcome of his application for employment with us.

STAT

STAT

Shortly after we wrote to you on 22 April concerning [redacted] we received his application forms. Later he came to our Headquarters building where he met with me and a member of the Personnel Office to discuss more fully his application. His qualifications were then carefully reviewed in light of our current openings, but we were unable to identify a vacancy which would accommodate his employment. A copy of our letter advising [redacted] of this result is enclosed for your information.

STAT

We wish to thank you for referring [redacted] to us, and if an opportunity should develop for him at a future
date, we shall get in touch with you.

Since receipt of your application forms and your subsequent interviews on 6 May with Agency officials, the possibilities for your employment with this Agency have been carefully explored. We regret to advise you that we have been unable to locate a current opening which would be commensurate with your excellent qualifications. We plan to keep your application in our active records, however, and shall get in touch with you should an opportunity develop for you in the future.

Your interest in the Agency is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Signed

E. D. Echols
