Honorable Harold D. Donohue
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Donohue:

Thank you for your letter of 18 March 1963 concerning the application of [redacted] for employment with this Agency.

STAT

[redacted] was interviewed by one of our representatives in November 1962 and his application was reviewed by appropriate operating officials of the Agency to determine the possibilities of a suitable opening for him. He was advised by letter dated 23 November that a vacancy commensurate with his qualifications did not exist at that time. We shall be glad to reconsider his file in light of our current vacancies and have written to [redacted] to advise him that we are doing so. A copy of our letter to him is enclosed for your information.

Dear Senator Humphrey:

In view of your interest in [redacted] I am writing to advise you of the results of our review of the possibilities for his employment with this Agency.

STAT

We have not located an opening for [redacted] in our organization but believe that he may have qualifications of interest to the Joint Publications Research Service. JPRS is part of the translation program of the Office of Technical Services, Department of Commerce. We have written to [redacted] to suggest that he get in touch with the JPRS office in New York and are enclosing a copy of our letter to him for your information.

STAT

Your referral of [redacted] was appreciated. We have noted his name for future reference in the event a suitable opening should occur; however, we hope that our suggestion concerning JPRS may produce more immediate results.

STAT

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Assistant Legislative Counsel
