Honorable John Sparkman
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Sparkman:

STAT

Thank you for your letter of 26 September concerning Mr. [redacted]

STAT

Mr. [redacted] first wrote to us regarding his interest in employment with the Central Intelligence Agency in June 1962 but no specific prospect materialized at that time. After he received his BA degree in August 1963, he was interviewed by [redacted] in [redacted] and his completed application forms were received and forwarded to Washington for further consideration 11 September. His specific interest at the time of this interview was in the field of communications but he indicated his desire to be considered for any field in which he might qualify.

AT

STAT

Mr. [redacted] genuine interest in serving with this Agency on a career basis is apparent and his application is receiving careful consideration for any opening commensurate with his background and qualifications. No specific vacancy has yet been identified for him but all opportunities will be explored.

Your interest in writing to me on Mr. [redacted] behalf is appreciated and we shall advise you of the results of his application when the current review has been completed.
