Dear Mr. Reuss:

This is to advise you of the results of our recent interview with Mrs. [redacted] who was referred to us by your office.

Mrs. [redacted] visited our personnel office on 26 December to discuss her general qualifications and employment interests.
We have given Mrs. [redacted] application forms to complete and have arranged for her to take an appropriate examination.

Your referral of Mrs. [redacted] was appreciated and we shall advise you of the outcome of her application.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR
PERSONNEL DIVISION

30 DEC 1963

Honorable James H. Morrison
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Morrison:

In Mr. McCone's absence from the city, I am writing in response to your letter of 19 December concerning [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] was considered for a position in which there were several vacancies. A number of candidates were tentatively identified but Mr. [redacted] was not among those finally selected for employment. He was advised of this conclusion in a letter dated 22 July 1963.

Mr. [redacted] application has been retained for future reference but is not under active consideration at this time. Budgetary and personnel ceiling considerations have sharply restricted our recruitment program and it is difficult to predict when there might be an opening for which he might qualify.

Your inquiry in Mr. [redacted] behalf is appreciated and I hope the information supplied above will be helpful.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Bennett:

In Mr. McCone's absence, I am replying to your letter of 17 December concerning possible employment opportunities for Mr. [redacted]

The curtailment of recruiting in those fields for which Mr. [redacted] appeared to be qualified and severe restrictions we have placed on the hiring of new employees have precluded current consideration of Mr. [redacted] employment at this time. Although we have no immediate vacancy which would accommodate his employment, his application is in our active files for reconsideration should a suitable position become available.

Your inquiry on Mr. [redacted] behalf was appreciated and I hope that the information supplied above will be helpful.

Dear Senator Bennett:

In Mr. McCone's absence, I am replying to your letter of 17 December concerning Mr. [redacted]

STAT

We have explored possible employment opportunities for Mr. [redacted] but his file is not under active consideration at this time. Although we have no immediate vacancy which would accommodate his employment, his application is in our active files for reconsideration should a suitable position become available.

The interviewer who saw Mr. [redacted] reported favorably on him and recommended that he be considered for a position in the communications field. However, the curtailment of recruiting in that field and in several others in which he appears to be qualified have precluded his employment at this time.

STAT

It is unfortunate that a young man of Mr. [redacted]'s background and interest in the Agency has applied when we have severely restricted any hiring of new employees. You can assure him that his failure to be offered employment resulted from this situation and that we shall be glad to consider his application again when an appropriate position might be available.

Dear Senator Young:

Thank you for your letter of 10 December enclosing Form 57 for Mr. [redacted]

We appreciate Mr. [redacted]'s interest in working with us during the summer of 1964. Our needs for temporary employees are quite limited in number, however, and it is not economically practical to investigate and clear candidates for such short periods of service. Thus far, we have been able to fill our requirements by recruiting young people who are already associated with the Agency through the employment of their parents and on whom most of the required background information is already available. Consequently, we have followed the practice of limiting our summer-only employment to this group.

Regarding Mr. [redacted] interest in having a personal interview while he is in the Washington area, we would be pleased to have him visit our Personnel Office located at 1016 Sixteenth Street to discuss possibilities for regular employment with us when he completes his college studies. That office is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Mr. [redacted] may wish to call Mr. [redacted] in advance to arrange a convenient time.

Your referral of Mr. [redacted] was appreciated. Since there is no immediate opportunity for him here, we are returning his Form 57 to you in the event you wish to refer it elsewhere.

Sincerely,

[redacted] Legislative Counsel

Honorable George M. Wallhauser
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wallhauser:

Thank you for your letter of 2 December enclosing a communication from Mr. [redacted] concerning employment with this Agency.

I am enclosing a set of our application forms and a brochure describing our general employment requirements and opportunities which you may wish to forward to Mr. [redacted]. It is not our policy to hire for direct assignment overseas, as we have found that the experience gained by a tour at our headquarters is beneficial to an employee prior to his being assigned to an overseas post. Therefore, we could not guarantee Mr. [redacted] an immediate assignment overseas, but we would be glad to consider an application from him in light of our current vacancies here at headquarters.

Your interest in writing to me in Mr. [redacted]'s behalf is appreciated, and we look forward to hearing from him. We shall advise you of the outcome of his application.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director

Honorable Edward R. Roybal
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Roybal:

In view of your interest in Mr. [redacted] I am writing to advise you of the outcome of his application for employment with us.

STAT

Appropriate officials have now concluded a thorough review of Mr. [redacted] background and experience. We were particularly interested in his fluency in Spanish and in certain aspects of his background which you noted in your letter of 5 November to our Director of Personnel. However, at this particular time, we do not have an opening in a position in which his qualifications could be utilized. Our personnel office has informed him of this result and a copy of their letter to him is enclosed for your information.

Your interest in Mr. [redacted] was appreciated and we shall advise you if a suitable opportunity should develop for him in the future.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Legislative Counsel
