Honorable John A. McCone
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

The 18th Annual Federal Safety Conference will be held in Chicago on October 28, 29, and 30, 1963, in conjunction with the National Safety Congress.

This conference presents an excellent opportunity for discussion and exchange of ideas on accident prevention and safety in our Government departments and agencies. It will not only provide stimulation to do a better safety job but will give each participant practical information on the latest accident prevention techniques. Your designated member of the Federal Safety Council, Mr. [redacted] will be furnished detailed information concerning the conference and its program.

I would appreciate your approving the attendance at this conference of personnel from Washington and the field who have responsibility for your agency's safety program. We would particularly want you to encourage the attendance of those staff members presently serving as field Federal Safety Council chairmen.

Yours sincerely,

W. Willard Wirtz
Secretary of Labor

Dear Mr. Wirtz:

Thank you for sending the interesting histories of the Department of Labor, tracing its progress since 1913. These publications will be included in our library where I am sure they will be read with great interest by certain of our specialists.

May I offer congratulations on this 50th anniversary of the Department, and my personal regards for your own contribution to its work.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McCone:

I am enclosing two new publications we are issuing in connection with the 50th Anniversary of the Department of Labor.

These sister histories trace, one in a documentary and the other in a less formal, more illustrative manner, the progress of the Department of Labor from 1913 to 1963. You will note that THE ANVIL AND THE PLOW, the more extensive history, includes a series of appendixes giving data on events, legislation, appropriations and personnel which may be of use to you. CHALLENGE AND CHANGE is, I feel, an easily read brief history which is accompanied by a series of charts contrasting human welfare around 1913 with that of today.

We hope you will share our Anniversary with us through THE ANVIL AND THE PLOW and CHALLENGE AND CHANGE.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

W. Willard Wirtz
Secretary of Labor
