Dear Sir

STAT

1. Through the kind efforts of your Director, Office of Security, Colonel Scheffeld Edwards, [redacted] of your organization made a presentation on 22 March for the benefit of our Proficiency Improvement Training Program which is a requirement for all special agents assigned to this office. This office has the largest number of special agents in the zone of interior and a goodly number are here for a tour of duty and then are reassigned overseas. These training programs are mandatory and approximately 80 special agents were in attendance.

STAT

2. The presentation by your representatives was most competently presented, was interesting and drew many worthwhile questions and comments from those in attendance. This particular presentation was timely and was of extreme interest to our agents. I am sure the benefit of the effort will inure to each of our agencies.

3. I wish to thank you and your representatives for this cooperation and I realize that this was a special effort made by your people. I consider this one of the most informative meetings we have had.

JOHN W. GAFFNEY
Colonel, USAF
Commander
