SUBJECT:

Pentagon Briefing to Agency Employees
on Tax Questions

25X1

As a result of an inquiry from General Carter to the Army Judge Advocate General, the latter has offered to send over JAG representatives, at our convenience, to brief Agency personnel concerning the relief which the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act affords military personnel, nonresidents of Virginia, from the application of the Virginia tax law. Colonel Winkler, JAG, has offered to broaden the briefing to include local tax questions of interest to civilians also. Suggest addressees and this Office confer with the view to setting up the briefing.
