Dr. Leonard Carmichael
Secretary, Smithsonian Institution
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Dr. Carmichael:

I am informed that the Smithsonian Institution is preparing collections of medals and decorations for display in the new Museum of History and Technology and has requested that a set of Central Intelligence Agency medallions be made available for this purpose.

It gives me great pleasure to send you this set of medallions for permanent retention at the Smithsonian. An insert with each medallion gives the particulars concerning design, manufacture, and precedence in the Agency's award system.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

It has been a real pleasure to work closely with you over the past seven years when you were serving as Deputy Inspector General. It has been a source of considerable satisfaction to me to have been able to rely on you for the many things that have fallen within the purview of the staff. I want to congratulate you on the fine performance.

I am delighted that you are having an opportunity to get a unit of your own in the Benefits and Services Division. This is a very important element of our Personnel Office and the whole Agency counts on it.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely,
