Dear Mr. Myers:

Thank you for your recent letter,
telling me about the forthcoming issues of LOOK Magazine and indicating that you will be sending them to me during the rest of this year.

I appreciate very much your thoughtfulness in making them available to me.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

March, 1961

My dear Mr. Dulles:

Along with our very best wishes for a happy and successful New Year, we are sending you LOOK with our compliments during 1961.

This new year holds much promise and many challenges for all of us. In the issues of LOOK you will receive, our editors will be telling the story of people - that ever-changing story of what people do, what they feel, what they think, what they want.

LOOK today is the fastest-growing major magazine in America.

We know it will be valuable to you in your important work, in addition to providing you and your family with many hours of enjoyable reading.

Cordially,

Vernon C. Myers
