I read your recent letter with pleasure, recalling our meeting after the war and our friendly discussion at that time. It is good to know that you are still, as then, participating in the struggle for freedom. If at some future time an opportunity arises for a more direct contact with you, I shall have an interview arranged.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT: Translation of [redacted] Letter to the Director of 22 June 1960 and Suggested Reply 25X1

1. Attached is a translation of [redacted] letter to the Director of 22 June 1960. 25X1

2. Since the writer claims (in paragraph 1) to have met the Director in 1945 and to have performed a task at the Director's request, we do not feel in a position to recommend definitely whether or not a reply is necessary. However, in case the Director believes a reply is warranted, a suggested letter is attached.

3. In any event, we believe that [redacted] may have some potential operational use, and we would like, with the Director's concurrence, to send the context of [redacted] letter to the [redacted] 25X1
