CHAIRMAN

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Allen:

Your letter of 10 June is appreciated very much. Knowing that Dick Amberg would be pleased to have your message, I am forwarding to him a copy of your letter.

Dick is a substantial citizen and a great patriot and I cherish his friendship. I am sure, however, that our friendship did not influence him in his attitude toward C.I.A. He served in the Navy during World War II and was trained in Naval Intelligence which makes him cognizant of the problems confronting an intelligence organization.

He is an independent publisher and calls the turns as he sees them.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Sidney W. Souers
