Dear Mr. Sawyer:

Just prior to Mr. Dulles' leaving for a trip to Europe, he asked me to thank you very much for your letter of 7 June.

I have asked some of our people to look into your offer and you will hear from us at an early date. Your courtesy in writing to us about this is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear Paul:

It is a pleasure for me to send you my autograph as you requested.

I note that you already have a good collection of autographs and I regret that I have no one to suggest who might be added to your list.

Sincerely,

Hon. Allen W. Dulles
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir;

I am an autograph collector and since I began my hobby several years ago, I have secured the signatures of President and Mrs. Eisenhower, the entire current Supreme Court, former President and Mrs. Truman, Mr. Bernard Baruch, Mr. Carl Sandburg, the Duke of Windsor, Prime-Minister Nehru, and many many others. I shall be ever so grateful if you will pen me a few words about some person, anywhere in the world, whose signature would be a fine addition to my collection and, perhaps, why.

I am a thirteen-year-old seventh grader at the Pembroke-Country Day school in Kansas City, Missouri, and I am also a Boy Scout. Enclosed please find a stamped self-addressed envelope for your reply. Many thanks.

Respectfully yours,

Paul George Sittenfeld
