Dear Walter:

Referring to your letter of March 9, I want you to know I thoroughly enjoyed the skit at the Gridiron Dinner and the entire evening, including the time spent afterwards with you and others.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

If we are still speaking late Saturday night I hope you will drop around the rooms of my leaders, Mr. W. D. Maxwell, who has the suite in his name.

I had a rather heavy hand in your skit. By the way you are the principal character in what I hope is a tuneful and amusing foreign affairs skit.

Best,

Hon. Allan W. Dulles
Washington, D.C.
