ERLO-1151

12 February 1958

Dear Allen:

[redacted] of your organization, gave a briefing to some of the key planning and operational people in this Department recently. It is a pleasure to inform you that those who attended his briefing have commented most favorably on what he had to say.

STAT

They seem to be particularly impressed by [redacted] discerning analysis of the use of a nation's armed forces to achieve stability in an emerging underdeveloped country of Asia and appreciated the details he gave of armed forces' participation in civic action.

STAT

It is our hope that similar special briefings can be arranged from time to time in the future as your agency has men of [redacted] talents and unusually practical experience available.

STAT

Please accept my personal appreciation for [redacted] appearance as our guest and express my warm thanks to all members of your staff concerned in making the briefing possible.

STAT

Sincerely,

(signed)
G. B. ERSKINE
General, USMC (Ret)
Assistant to the
Secretary of Defense
