Dear Mr. Kleinerman:

I will be happy to see you and Mr. Benjamin when you are in Washington on the 26th and 27th of March. As may have told you, our policy in regard to material of the O. S. S. is generally to avoid publicity if possible. However, we will be glad to discuss the matter with you and see what you have in mind. I would suggest that you telephone me at upon your arrival and we can arrange a time to get together.

STATINTL

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Lyman Kirkpatrick
