Dear Mr. Dulles:

I want to thank you most sincerely for the splendid contribution which you made to our 46th Annual Meeting with your address on "Khrushchev's Challenge."

Those who attended the International Luncheon at which you spoke were impressed by what you had to say. I have heard many enthusiastic comments about your penetrating and informative address from the men and women who were there.

We were especially pleased with the fine press, radio and television coverage. Without question your address was a high spot on the program of our Annual Meeting.

With warm personal regards and every best wish.

Sincerely yours,
