Mr. Hamilton Fish Armstrong
Editor, Foreign Affairs
53 East 68th Street
New York 21, New York

Dear Ham:

I hesitate to bother you with the attached but it has been dumped on my desk, and now I dump it on yours.

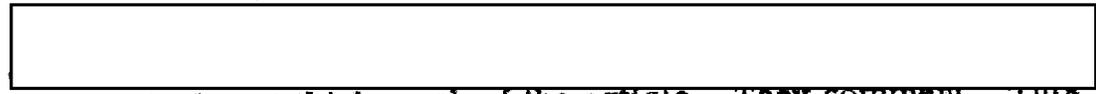

Enclosed is a copy of a letter dated July 19, 1960 which I received from [redacted] the only copy of the original German and a translation of the [redacted] article he sent me, and a copy of a letter dated 12 July 1956 from [redacted] on the same subject. Whether or not you can properly comply with the request in [redacted] [redacted] letter of July 19, I do not know, but if you can, send it directly to him. I suppose you have nice, polite, well-rounded forms of rejection letters for all circumstances.

our people do not think much of the article. They comment, "This is an elementary, and in part somewhat tendentious, article which deals only with the immediate, superficial background of the Congo situation. An article for Foreign Affairs should be considerably more profound, better grounded historically, and more objective."

You see that our people hold Foreign Affairs in high regard.

Again, apologies.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen; —

Forgive a second letter in two days. My friend in Germany, [redacted] [redacted] has just returned from the Congo. He has sent me this ARTICLE with request I submit it to "Foreign Affairs". I have no contact, except as a subscriber with that magazine.

I find [redacted] article, not a bit poor. In fact, it is (to me at least) better than any I have read in the press or magazines. Nevertheless, like most topical articles, it is apt to be outmoded next week. Such is the lot of magazine articles.

Could you forward it to Foreign Affairs. All I ask is that they submit a damn nice letter of rejection, which I can forward to [redacted]
