Dear Ham:

Many thanks for your note of June 11 and the proofs of your article on Afghanistan.

I read the article with much interest and have sent it to some others here for further study.

Unfortunately, it now appears that I will be in the Pacific when you are in Washington this month, but I sincerely hope we can get together for a chat soon after my return.

Faithfully,

Dear Allen:

That was a very good talk you gave at the Army War College.

Here is a set of proofs of my article on Afghanistan.

The proposal that we arrange for a comprehensive reappraisal of the Helmand Valley project is on page 614.

I also hope you will find time to read my remarks beginning on page 608 about our national estimate of Mohammedanism as an off-set to Communist infiltration in Moslem countries. I think we may be off on the wrong foot.

I am to be in Washington on Tuesday, June 26, for an all-day meeting of the advisory committee of the Foreign Service Institute. If you are not going to be away in the Pacific then I might arrange to be in Washington the evening of the 25th - in case, of course, you happen not to be otherwise engaged.

As ever,

Dear Ham:

ER file set 2/10/56

I have postponed my trip abroad so will look forward to seeing you when you are here. I hope we can have an evening together. Please let me know the exact dates of your sojourn in Washington as I neglected to make a note of it thinking I would be away.

Also many thanks for the copy of your note to
 I hope that this will result in a satisfactory agreement between you.
