Dear Mr. Wilcox:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your letter of 7 June 1960 which arrived today just as he was leaving the United States for a trip overseas.

Mr. Dulles appreciates your writing to him on behalf of the Syracuse Rotary Club and inviting him to address one of your regularly scheduled Friday noon luncheon meetings in the Hotel Onondaga should he be in Syracuse when you are having a meeting.

Again, thank you for your invitation.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan
