The President
The White House

Dear Mr. President:

I deeply appreciate all the help you gave the Agency and me yesterday by laying the Cornerstone of the new building, and in particular by what you said. Your words will be an encouragement and inspiration to all of our people.

The fact that you testified to the value of their work in anonymity will be an incentive for them to keep on and do still better.

Again - thanks.

Respectfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
