Dear Mr. Broyhill:

Thank you for your letter of 10 July 1957 bringing Mr. [redacted] to my attention.

Mr. [redacted] was interviewed in our personnel office on 17 July 1957. He told our representative that he had an application pending with the General Services Administration and that, if the prospective opening there did not materialize, he would like to apply here. Since our requirements for photographers are limited, the outlook here is not too encouraging. However, if he does elect to apply, we will give him every consideration.

I appreciate your referral of Mr. [redacted] and will advise you of the outcome of our discussion with him.

Sincerely,

Signed

Allen W. Dulles
Director
