Honorable William A. Barrett
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Barrett:

Thank you for your memorandum of 2 November 1959
regarding [redacted]

STAT

We are at present restricting our recruitment to replacing turnover among clerical personnel and to obtaining a few selected junior officer trainees. Opportunities in other fields are infrequent but we shall be glad to explore our needs for linguists to see if there are any immediate prospects for a man of [redacted] multi-lingual abilities.
