MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Attorney General William P. Rogers - Speeches

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. Mr. Malcolm R. Wilkey, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel, called me on 2 July to say that Attorney General Rogers was much encouraged by the Russian protests against his June 21 speech in Chicago. Mr. Wilkey said Mr. Rogers wanted a follow-up hitting along the same line. Malcolm said they would appreciate any material we could supply.

3. I have talked to [redacted] and they feel that there are certain lines the Attorney General could profitably follow. As examples, he could attack the claim that the Nagy arrest was an internal Hungarian matter, pointing out the undertaking that he could go free was given by the Hungarians, but that immediately upon leaving the Yugoslav Embassy Nagy was arrested by Russian troops and taken to Rumania. [redacted] also feel Khrushchev's cocktail comment to an American reporter that "We'll roll you under" can be effectively used. And, similarly, we can give Bill Rogers specific quotations by Khrushchev for internal consumption by the Russian people about the Western imperialist powers preparing for war.
