Mr. Robert M. Ansell, Jr.

[Redacted]

Dear Mr. Ansell:

General Cabell has asked me to thank you for your letter of 17 September in which you request his autograph.

It has been and continues to be General Cabell's policy to furnish autographed photographs only to his close personal friends. For this reason he regrets it will not be possible to fill your request.

Your thoughtfulness in writing is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mr. Dulles:

This is the date on which you are hosting a luncheon for at the Alibi Club. Shall we therefore decline this invitation?
