Dear Roger:

I sincerely appreciated your letter about Foster. I know what you yourself have gone through and I have been thinking of you often.

I feel that it is much too long since we have seen each other and I hope that when you are in Washington you will let me know, and when I come to New York, I shall surely get in touch with you.

Sincerely,

Dear Bob:

I was certainly distressed to hear that you have been hospitalized and hope that this note will find you feeling better.

We are all looking forward to your being up and around again shortly. In the meantime if there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear General Clark:

In my letter of 30 May replying to yours of 25 May, I said I would write you further regarding the Russian language letter you enclosed which you had received from your friend in Austria.

I have now had the letter translated and as I had surmised, it outlines certain methods of cancer treatment which the author has found beneficial to his patients.

Once again many thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,
