Dear Mr. Doyle:

I wish to thank you very much for your letter of 22 April inviting me to speak at the National Association Insurance Commissioner's Convention on 10 June.

I sincerely regret that I shall not be able to accept your kind invitation. My commitments during that week in June are such that I am unable to assume another. However, I greatly appreciate the honor you have done me in asking me to join you on this particular occasion and would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in your program.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Director:

During the week of June 8, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and representatives of the insurance industry will meet in Boston for their Annual Convention and business meetings. The climax of the Convention will be a Dinner on the evening of June 10, 1959 at the Statler Hilton Hotel and it is expected that there will be about 1200 persons in attendance.

The Committee on Arrangements has directed me to ascertain your availability as principal speaker at the Dinner on June 10. I plan to be in Washington on Monday, April 27, and would like very much to make a definite appointment so that I may discuss further details with you. I will call you upon my arrival in Washington.

Respectfully,

William Doyle
