Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

I have your kind letter of 2 November concerning the talk that I made before the Harvard Business School Club of New York.

Your generous comments are indeed gratifying and I greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me as you did. I might add that I thoroughly enjoyed this occasion and it was a real pleasure meeting you and the members of the Club.

With kindest regards.

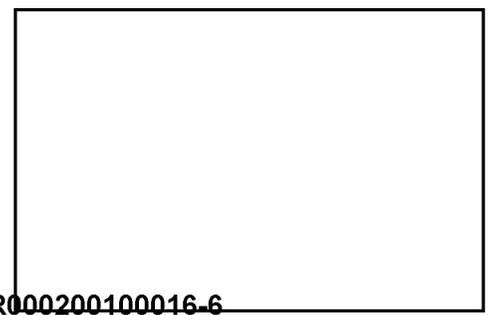

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I want to extend my congratulations and appreciation for the excellent talk which you made on October 26th before the Harvard Business School Club of New York. This was one of the most successful meetings ever held by the group, and I know that your comments were interesting and valuable to everyone present.

It was a pleasure meeting you, and I look forward to seeing you again sometime in the future.

Sincerely yours,

John J. Fitzgerald
