MR. DULLES:

Mr.  [redacted] card* who served with you in Switzerland during WW I 25X1 is in Washington today and left a message that any time he can be of any unofficial service, he will be glad to do so. Present address: [redacted]
Telephone: [redacted] 25X1

He is a retired Colonel of the Air Force, having served with Gen. Chennault during WW II. He still has perfect fluency in French & Turkish and smatterings of other languages.

He said to remind you that he served as an assistant to Leland Harrison who set up a clearing house for intelligence in State in 1917.

He is staying at DACOR House while in Washington and is having lunch with a friend of his at the White House.
