Dear Mr. Stone:

I very much appreciate your letter of April 14 and your kind remarks concerning my brother.

It was very considerate of you to write and you can be sure that your suggestions, as well as those of many other thoughtful persons like yourself, are being given careful attention and consideration by the physicians in charge of my brother's care.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

April 14, 1959.

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Perhaps you may recall meeting me at your New York office a few years ago when I called to discuss with you a measure of anti-Soviet activity, having been introduced to you by our mutual friend, Shepard Morgan.

The enclosed copy of a letter to your brother speaks for itself. I addressed it to Mrs. Dulles in the hope that that would reach him quicker, but as it was mailed shortly before he left Florida I am not sure whether the letter reached its destination.

In view of the sad news about his health reported today I am more anxious than ever to bring the subject of the enclosed letter to the attention of his family and am therefore mailing it to you for such action as you think best.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

N. I. Stone
