Professor Stan J. Velinsky
Chairman, Department of Psychology
Shorter College
Rome, Georgia

Dear Professor Velinsky:

With respect to the subject of my recently published article, I acknowledge with thanks both your letter dated September 5, 1959 and the interesting observations and suggestions which you made to [redacted] on September 10, 1959. Such expressions of lively solicitude for the effective pursuit of our national objectives are indeed gratifying to those of us who share direct responsibility for their realization. If a careful study of your proposal indicates in the light of material factors that subsequent discussion with you would be of further usefulness, I shall take the liberty of communicating with you to that effect.

25X1

Sincerely,
