Dear Mr. [Redacted]

The Secretary of Defense, Louis Johnson, has referred to me your letter to him of 6 August 1949.

Your references to your past experience and to your records of [Redacted] leaders and their plans are extremely interesting. It would be appreciated if you could supply me with some more detailed description of the nature and state of any records you have. I should also like to know whether you are presently in touch with [Redacted] in North China, or, if not, how recently you have had a contact or correspondence with them.

Thanking you for bringing this matter to the attention of the United States Government, I beg to be

Sincerely yours,
