Dear Victor:

Thank you very much for your letter of December 5, and for the most thoughtful memorandum which you enclosed.

We are studying your letter and memorandum. There is a great deal in it which accords with our views. One of these days I should very much like to sit down and talk over the situation with you.

Congratulations with regard to your son Paul. I know Justice Harlan well and shall look forward to seeing him when he comes here next year.

Sincerely,

Dear Victor:

Thank you very much for your letter of December 5 and for the most thoughtful memorandum which you enclosed.

Your memorandum is certainly thought-provoking and I have asked some of my staff here to study it and give me their comments. I should be pleased to have the opportunity to discuss this subject with you at greater length some time when you happen to be in Washington.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
