Dear Bill:

With reference to our conversation after the meeting of the Committee for Economic Development on the 21st of November and pursuant to your note of November 22, I am enclosing a copy of an outline I used for my address of that date.

Since my remarks were of an informal and off-the-record nature, I have nothing more formalized as a basis for my comments than the attached outline.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
 Director

WILLIAM BENTON
PUBLISHER & CHAIRMAN

November 22, 1957

To: The Secretary of Mr. Allen W. Dulles
From: Mr. William Benton

I spoke to Mr. Dulles as he left the CED today, asking him whether he could send me a review of his notes or any of the material which he presented to the CED which he happened to have available in written form. I shall not attribute any quotation to him but I would like to review the material once more and I shall of course return it if you want it back. Many thanks.
